HIGH AND DRY WATERFRONT!! Deep water and high elevation is the new name of the game in waterfront property. This well maintained block home has both of those characteristics. With three bedrooms and 2.5 baths this home has a proper master retreat at the top of a gorgeous winding staircase! High vaulted ceilings in the living room with custom lighting and decorative beams. The living room has a nice fire place for those cool Florida nights and two sets of French doors which lead out onto the spacious screened in porch. Fabulous Anclote River views off the porch, living room and throughout the back yard. Deep water access off the dock and picture perfect opportunities to watch manatees, dolphins and birdlife in your private setting. Two additional spacious bedrooms, a full bathroom and a half bath located off the kitchen. The kitchen has everything one would want with open views to the living room, beautiful cabinetry, granite counter tops, SS appliances and eat in bar top to feed your family or guests. For those boating days on the water, use the side entrance to drop off your gear in the tackle room so not to walk through the house fishy and salty! Plenty of space for the toys in the two car garage, not to mention the craft room off the garage. With the outstanding elevation of this home there should not be a requirement for flood insurance. Go find a home of this caliber, size and location for under a million dollars, or look
